

Quinn & Partners – Equity, Diversity & Inclusion Self-Identification Questionnaire

Forward

At Quinn & Partners, we are committed to building fulfilling careers and working together to advance sustainability in business and capital markets. As an integral part of sustainability, equity, diversity and inclusion (EDI) is a set of intentional practices that includes understanding, appreciating, and respecting unique qualities, perspectives, and experiences. We believe when people feel valued, respected and included, they are able to achieve their full potential, be more productive, and feel successful and fulfilled.

Quinn & Partners is an equal opportunity employer and seeks to pursue fairness and equity and minimize conscious and unconscious bias in our hiring practices. We are committed to growing a team with diverse backgrounds and experiences.

What is this information being used for and how will it be protected?

Our intention for requesting this information is to evaluate EDI in our recruiting and hiring practices to improve EDI outcomes. The information provided is only used to determine diversity of our overall applicant pool and diversity of candidates at subsequent hiring stages (on aggregate) to evaluate potential conscious and unconscious bias. Individual information is not reviewed by any member of the company.

The information you provide in this questionnaire will be treated with the strictest confidence. The data provided is aggregated and analyzed anonymously to ensure that you will not be identified by name. Any information you provide in this survey will be used only for the purpose of advancing Quinn and Partners' EDI strategy and no other purpose. Surveys are aggregated and analyzed by an external third-party. Aggregated data is kept in a secure and private place, only accessible the third party and one member of Q&P's EDI Committee. Aggregated data is kept for the duration of the recruiting process and destroyed following our completion of our recruiting process and analysis.
