Quinn+Partners Accessibility Policy

Introduction

At Quinn+Partners (Q+P), we are committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive workplace that values the unique perspectives and needs of our team members, clients and partners. We aim to respect the dignity and independence of all individuals with disabilities by actively preventing and removing barriers to accessibility.

This Accessibility Policy (The Policy) outlines Q+P's practices, procedures and strategy for identifying, preventing and removing barriers to accessibility. It is developed in alignment with the requirements of the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 (AODA) and the Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulation (IASR).

Our Approach

This Policy outlines our commitment and actions to identify, prevent and remove barriers to accessibility and to provide an accommodating work environment and customer experience.

Our Policy addresses the following AODA standards:

- Accessibility Standards for Customer Service
- Accessibility Standards for Information + Communication
- Accessibility Standards for Employment

The Policy is supplemented by our Multi-Year Action Plan (MYAP), appended to this document and other company policies and procedures referenced within this Policy.

The Policy and MYAP are available on our website and can be provided in an accessible format upon request.

We commit to provide training for all employees on accessibility and our policy.

1. Accessibility Standards for Customer Service

We work to embed accessibility considerations into the delivery of our services and interactions with clients, partners, the public and provide accommodations where required and appropriate. This includes:

1. Consider disabilities when interacting with clients, partners and the public at our facility and seek to remove barriers and accommodate, where possible.
2. Allow clients, partners and the public to use their own assistive devices, support persons or service animals as needed when on Q+P offices.

3. Provide clients with the opportunity to provide feedback on the accessibility of our services and request documents in accessible formats, where applicable.
4. Provide or arrange for the provision of accessible formats of service delivery for persons with disabilities, such as alternate document formats or verbal delivery, where possible and upon request. We will provide this delivery in a timely manner that takes into account the persons accessibility needs due to disability and at a cost that is no more than the regular cost charged to other persons.

2. Accessibility Standards for Information + Communication

Q+P is committed to communicating with individuals with disabilities in ways that accommodate their specific needs. To adhere with the Information and Communications Standard of the AODA, we will:

1. Make our website and web content conform to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.0, initially at level A and increasing to level AA in accordance with the AODA Standards.
2. Provide the public with an accessible process to provide feedback on the accessibility of our information and communications. We will respond in a timely manner and seek to address feedback in consultation with the person making the request.
3. Provide, upon request, appropriate communication support for any emergency procedures, plans or public safety information that is publicly available.

3. Accessibility Standards for Employment

Q+P provides equal employment opportunities and accommodations for prospective and current team members with disabilities. To support this, we will:

1. Notify applicants and team members about the availability of accommodations during recruitment, selection and throughout employment.
2. Offer accommodations based on individual accessibility needs.
3. Provide individualized accommodation plans and, if applicable, emergency response plans for team members with disabilities.
4. Consider accessibility needs in performance management, career development, return-to-work and return-to-office processes for team members who have been absent due to disability.

Feedback Process

Feedback is important and helps us to support our commitment to create an environment that promotes dignity, independence and equal opportunity for all provide reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities.
